

WIN a ride in a race powerboat with Shelley Jory!

POWERBOATING star and All at Sea columnist Shelley Jory is offering one lucky reader the chance to ride with her in a Honda 225 race boat that is currently competing in the Honda Formula Four Stroke Championships!

The boat you will be riding in will be a 28 foot Cougar Raceboat with a Honda 225 engine - capable of 70 mph top speed.

Shelley's team, Team Raymarine, won the Honda Formula Four Stroke Association series in 2005, becoming the first female crew to do so and the most successful Honda team to date.

Shelley has now gone on to be the first woman to compete in the Powerboat P1 Evolution class, the Formula One of power boat racing.

For your chance win this exclusive prize, simply answer this question:
Which powerboat class is Shelley now competing in?

Send your answers and details to competitions@allatsea.co.uk or All at Sea Competitions, CSL Publishing, Alliance House, 49 Sidney Street, Cambridge, CB2 3HX.
