

EXPERT

Over 500 Exhibitors*

11th - 20th January 2008

call on 0870 060 0246

londonboatshow.com

*Based on the ABC Audit taken from the 2007 Collins Stewart London Boat Show.
BT customers will pay no more than 10p per minute. A transaction fee of £1.25 applies.
†Two children aged 15 and under will be admitted free for every standard adult ticket purchased.

54 years

KIDS GO FREE!

British Marine

National Boat Shows

TOTALLY LONDON

Docklands Light Railway

EXCEL LONDON

EXCITE EXPERIENCE EXCEL

The home of the London Boat Show

FREE

BOAT

NEWS

Nov 07
Issue 14

Britain's No1 Boating Newspaper

digital version at: www.boat-news.co.uk

SHOWTIME!

New show at Earls Court launches with record sponsorship deal

The first ever Whyte & Mackay Earls Court Boat Show kicks off next month promising to be "a boat show like no other". As well as the traditional range of exhibitors, selling everything from cruising yachts to jubilee clips, a host of attractions will be laid on to become what show organiser James Brooke describes as the "spiritual home" of sailors.

The new event is intended to revive the spirit of yachting during the heyday of the

» Continued on p03

» See ticket offer on p34

Brits dismast in Transat JV

Four days into the 4,200-mile Transat Jacques Vabre and two British Open 60s had already dismasted. First, the new £2m Pindar, which lost her rig during Cowes Week, dismasted again eight days before the start of the race. Then, on Day 4, the mast on Artemis came down off the coast of Spain. The good news is that, as we went to press, British skipper Mike Golding was still up with the frontrunners with mast intact. Fingers crossed. Full report on p04.

fresh boats everyday

Why trawl the net looking for your next boat, when rightboat.com is refreshed and updated everyday?

rightboat.com

guiding you to your next boat

